		The boom in health care construction has been a boon to Barton Malow's sales. Barton Malow and its joint ventures are managing construction of several of the area's largest projects, the University of Michigan's $523 million C.S. Mott Children's and Women's Hospitals and $215 million Cardiovascular Center (pictured at left), and the $224 million St. John Providence Park Hospital in Novi. Outside of health care, Barton Malow has teamed up in a joint venture with No. 2 Walbridge Aldinger to manage construction of the $418 million Metro Airport north terminal, expected to be complete in 2008.
